

“Pi(e) Day at the Plantation” at Dover, Del.’s John Dickinson Plantation

Listing of plantation events through August 2014 also included

In a humorous twist on Pi Day, the John Dickinson Plantation, located at 340 Kitts Hummock Rd. in Dover, Del., will present “Pi(e) Day at the Plantation” on Friday, March 14, 2014 between 11 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. The program will provide visitors with an opportunity to explore pie recipes from the 1700s and participate in pie baking as it was practiced during the 18th century when John Dickinson was in residence at the plantation. The site will also be open for visitation and tours between 10 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. Admission is free. For additional information, call 302-739-3277.

The John Dickinson Plantation was the boyhood home and country estate of John Dickinson, one of the founding fathers of the United States, signer of the U.S. Constitution and “Penman of the Revolution.” The plantation features Dickinson’s original 1740 brick home, reconstructed farm buildings and a log’d dwelling, surrounded by rich agricultural lands stretching down to the banks of the St. Jones River.

Following is a schedule of John Dickinson Plantation events through August 2014. All programs take place at the John Dickinson Plantation, 340 Kitts Hummock Road, Dover, Del. The plantation is open Wednesday to Saturday, 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Times for special programs are indicated. Admission is free for all events listed. For additional information, call 302-739-3277.
